Modern Miracles.

Cures Performed Last Night That Rival Those of 1800 Years Ago.

Grand Opera House the Scene of the Most Astonishing and Unparalleled Accomplishments.

The Boy Phenomenon Greeted With Prolonged Applause From a Large and Grateful Audience.

Another Demonstration Tonight Free—For Adults Only.

"Wonderful!" "Astonishing!" "Marvelous!" "Miraculous!" "How can he do it?" and many like expressions were heard as the vast throng surged out of the Grand Opera house last night, after witnessing the most marvelous exhibition of healing the sick ever performed in this part of the country.

There has never been a medical practitioner or any other person in this city who has attracted so much attention or been the object of such universal praise as has been accorded this youthful healer since his advent here. He is the talk of the town. One hears and sees nothing but "Boy Phenomenon!" He is the chief topic of conversation on the streets, in the stores, on the cars, in offices, at home—in fact everywhere. His name coupled with the marvelous cures he accomplished last night upon the public stage, before hundreds of representative citizens of Akron, has created an exciting episode in our city.

There are many of our most prominent and influential citizens in the audience, including leading physicians, lawyers, judges and business men. As usual, many were, no doubt, very skeptical when they went in, but all were of one mind when they went out, and that was that vital magnetism, as possessed by the "Boy Phenomenon," does undoubtedly possess most wonderful healing qualities.

Tonight will occur the second and last public exhibition, although he will remain in the city some few weeks at the Buchtel Hotel to treat those who wish private treatment. Those who are interested in the work and all who are on crutches, the lame, deaf and dumb who wish to be cured, will be given front seats and treated free upon the stage tonight. Admission free to all adults.

About a dozen well known citizens were treated last night suffering with as many different diseases, and by his wonderful life-giving magnetism restored paralyzed and rheumatic limbs to usefulness, made the deaf hear, the blind see and the lame walk, in each instance the patients demonstrating by their actions and testifying by words the great benefits derived. While there undoubtedly many remarkable cures performed, time prevents a more extended notice in this article, as the detailed report of the demonstration will be found in the local columns. Suffice to say, he did all and more than the advertisements claimed for him. He certainly proved to the most exacting that he is possessed with some power by which he is enabled to effect wonderful transformation in the afflicted.

Those who desire private treatment and are able to pay a small price to be cured, may call at the Buchtel hotel any time during the next two weeks, and receive consultation, examination, and a thorough diagnosis at which time the examining physician will decide if the case is curable, and if so, the price of treatment and full particulars will be given. Those wishing free treatment and desiring to test his power must go to the Grand opera house tonight. Office hours at Buchtel hotel, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., daily, excluding the Sabbath. Entrance on Main st.

NO SETTLEMENT

Arrived At In Arbitration of Wage Question.

Arbitrators O. C. Barber and Wm. Graham have not yet selected a third man to help in arbitrating the wage question of the A. & C. F. R. T. Co. and its employees. Their progress is handicapped owing to Mr. Graham's being obliged to attend court.

"Regarding the statement that the Cleveland strike would affect this place and the Akron Traction & Electric Co.'s employees would likely be ordered out in sympathy with the Cleveland men is a mistake," said Conductor Chas. Kelly of the Akron Traction & Electric Co. today. Mr. Kelly is a prominent and well-known member of the local union.

He also added: "Not a word regarding such a move has as yet been whispered to us, nor do we expect to receive such an invitation."

A LITTLE JAUNT

To be Taken at State's Expense.

Junketing Trip That Has Political Significance.

When on next Friday evening the state boat, Chas. E. Perkins, leaves Lock 1 on its annual junketing trip, at the expense of the state, the scene will be imposing. On board will be Chas. E. Perkins, chief engineer of the Public Works of the State; Washington G. Johnston, of the Board of State Works, Supt. W. M. Hiltabiddle, Capt. Chas. Hatch, several prominent politicians of the state, probably including Col. Dick, and politicians of local prominence. In all there will be about 40 persons in the party, and the dear old Buckeye state hasn't been asked to do a thing but reach into the public coffers for revenue wherewith to provide for "this little courtesy" to her favored ones.

Rumor has it that the junketing trip, which will be to Barborton, has been arranged that the politicians may incidentally hold a political council, or in other words, that a slate is going to be formed, and that plans may be laid whereby certain local politicians may be made and others unmade.

But, what of that! So long as those on board are having a good time at the state's expense, who among them will care what the people think? This is merely a "courtesy of the state."

The cost of rudimentary improvements on the boat will aggregate about $100. It is now at Payne's dry dock being repainted and striped beautifully. A dainty canopy has been erected over it and other improvements will make it as gorgeous as Cleopatra's barge. But these items of improvement will be minor as compared to the other necessities to the pleasures of the occasion, and which, of course, the state will provide.

The shimmering colors and dazzling lights, the music, dainty meats and viands and drinks will be superb. Everything will be grand, and Mark Hanna will be glad.

The boat will be hauled down the canal with horses, and everything necessary to the comfort and pleasure of the guests will be arranged.

It is said that the boat with the merry party on board will be a sight full of splendor as it speeds down the canal. The triumphant strains of music, the merry laughter and songs of the party will add gaiety and pleasure to the event. Oh, the state knows how to entertain; and there are those who know how to conduct and accept the entertainment!

W. M. Hiltabiddle, Supt. of the Ohio State canal, will in a few days provide another jaunting trip with the same boat to some friends.

Best dancing floor in the vicinity at the Gorge. Dancing every week day and evening.

ENCOURAGEMENT

For Judge C. R. Grant's Candidacy

Given by Democrats and Independent Republicans.

The DEMOCRAT has received communications from ex-Gov. Sidney Edgerton, ex-Representative E. Conn, Mr. Stephen P. Hartzell, member of the Board of Education from the Fourth ward, Mr. S. C. McNeill, and Mr. J. G. Geary endorsing the candidacy of Judge C. R. Grant for the nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court, and urging the Democrats of Summit county to pledge him their unanimous support at the approaching county convention. Limited space prevents the DEMOCRAT from publishing the communications today.

In treating children for coughs, colds, croup or whooping cough, it is expedient to have a medicine that is pleasant to take. Children like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always cures, too. For sale by all druggists.

MARRIED

But They Kept the News a Profound Secret.

Miss Florence N. Myers and Leroy C. Rose, Husband and Wife.

Miss Florence N. Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myers of 302 Park st., who until a few days resided at 408 Perkins st., and Leroy C. Rose, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Rose, 105 Brown st., were secretly married in Wooster Monday, May 29.

The news of their wedding has been kept a secret. At noon Mr. Rose was approached by a DEMOCRAT reporter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myers. At first he said it was just a rumor. He said Miss Myers and himself were visiting in Wooster and at one place were introduced as husband and wife. A Mrs. Brown of Akron was in the party, he said, and when she came home the report spread rapidly. The reporter assured Rose that it was a good story and that he positively knew of the marriage. In a few minutes Rose consulted his wife and they decided to confirm the report.

Rev. Smith, of the M. E. church, officiated. Rose is employed by the Atlantic & Pacific Tea company, traveling as salesman. He says the parents of the bride and groom both consented to the marriage, but they wanted to be married in secrecy. Rose further said the Wooster papers had agreed to keep still, that's why he succeeded in keeping the matter so quiet.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose will reside at 302 Park st.

MID SUMMER RALLY

Of the Summit County Christian Endeavor Union.

Quite a large audience attended the mid-summer rally of the Summit county C. E. Union held at the First Church of Christ between the hours of 8 and 10 Wednesday evening. Many delegations of out-of-town societies were present, and the meeting was interesting and profitable.

The meeting was conducted by Attorney J. C. Frank, county chairman of the union.

Consecration services were conducted by Rev. J. L. Davies. A cornet trombone duet by Messrs. Adam Rauck and John McTammany, followed. Miss Estella Musson played a piano solo and Miss Cornelia Cranz a violin solo. A very interesting paper on "The Coming State and National Conventions" was read by H. N. Jasper. Selections on a photograph were entertaining features.

Following the enactment of the program, light refreshments were served in the basement of the church.
